THEATRE: "SWEET SINGER"

Friday, October 18, Saturday, October 19, Sunday, October 20

Charles Wesley, 18th century author of many of our best loved hymns, will appear on campus in the person of Steven Kimbrough, whose "Sweet Singer," a dramatic musical, will be staged by the Seminary's Speech Studios.

The play spans the scope of Wesley's thinking on human and social injustice, his struggle against poverty, and his reluctance to accept Holy Orders as a clergyman in the Church of England, and his personal transformation. Venturing to America, Wesley again walks the pioneers' path. The play focuses on Wesley's courage in the wake of violence that led to his opposition to slavery and his involvement in the social and spiritual reform of the times, including the stormy beginnings of the Methodist movement.

Dr. S T Kimbrough enjoys two careers. Formerly on the Seminary faculty and currently in residence at the Center of Theological Inquiry, is an internationally respected biblical scholar and author. Kimbrough is also a professional concert performer. In the upcoming production, he will sing two of Wesley's hymns, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," and "O, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing."

FIRESTONE LIBRARY ACCESS

The chief administrator of the Access Office at Firestone Library has asked that we remind all students and faculty that the ID card issued to them is a very valuable document. The general public must pay $240.00 for such access each year. Already this fall one or two Seminary persons have reported the loss of the ID access card. This is a serious matter and we have been asked to request Seminary persons to guard their cards carefully. If you do lose your card, report it immediately to the Access Office so they will be able to the circulation of materials on that card. You will be held responsible for any books checked out on your card whether or not you have authorized such use. The photo is not complete protection as persons of similar appearance can gain access to the library. However, upon proper notification, computer safeguards can make checking out of materials impossible. Those who do not exercise appropriate safeguard of their access privilege may risk having it denied.

WE ASK YOUR COOPERATION

In our efforts to keep the Seminary community's calendar free from conflicting events, whenever a group leader or or events' chairperson must cancel a luncheon or dinner meeting, we ask that the following procedure be followed:

1) Please notify the Housing Office so that the event can be removed from the Campus Calendar Book and the space can be made available to others;

2) please notify Craig Cunningham, food service director, immediately.

It is the responsibility of the person in charge of the event or group to notify both the Housing Office and food services. Problems have occurred when the above procedures have not been followed. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

FORTRESS DISPLAY

Fortress Church Supply stores carry a wide selection of clergy vestments and apparel at reasonable prices. A representative will be on campus Wednesday, October 16, from 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. in the Mackay Center foyer. If you would like further information on the line, contact Jim Lankheet, 914-8130.

FOR EVERYONE'S SAFETY

I would like to remind motor vehicle operators that the stop line on Mercer Street for traffic going south from Princeton is in a position just ahead of the entrance to the Seminary driveway. This means that you may not make a left turn when the light is red. Recently, when the light was red for vehicles on Mercer Street, drivers have been observed making left turns when exiting from the Seminary onto Mercer Street. We have been advised by the Princeton Borough Police that this is considered an illegal act and drivers will be ticketed for turning left at any time except when the light is green for Mercer Street. Such a regulation is necessary because this is a private driveway and the light is permitted on Mercer Street only for pedestrian crossings.

FOOTBALL SEASON

THEATRE

Thursday, November 21, Friday, November 22, Saturday, November 23, Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.

A theatrical contribution of two one-act plays will be presented by the Seminary's Speech Department. "Goodbye, Howard," written by Romulus Linney, is a comedy about the problems Howard's three sisters face resulting from the premature announcement of his death. The prospect of canceling obituary notices to newspapers and recalling telegrams to notables expecting to attend the funeral provides the author with a stage set for unmasking human quirks and foibles.

In Gus Kaikonen's play, "Potholes," the audience observes a married couple playing out the practical and often typical courting procedures of men and women. A trenchant story presented under a comedic guise.

CHAPEL SERVICES

Many of you have perhaps noticed some differences in the schedule of daily chapel. In recent years the pattern has been to set aside certain days for the various leaders of worship. The president, for example, would often lead worship on Mondays and the choirs would lead on Wednesdays. This year the Chapel Council has modified this pattern in order to allow everyone in the community, including those who are on campus only one or two days a week, to experience and participate in the full richness of our worship life. Student, faculty, and administrative leadership in worship will no longer be restricted to particular days, and the several seminary choirs will provide musical support and leadership for almost every daily service. Liturgical dance and other forms of artistic worship will be incorporated from time to time into the regular daily worship and not set aside for exclusively "artistic" services. A mix of worship styles and orders has been planned, including services of prayer and music and services which also include preaching. The Chapel Council invites responses to this new schedule, which may be communicated to the chair, Dr. Thomas Long.

ALL SAINTS DAY

The badges will also serve as a reminder to continue efforts for world awareness to the plight of the South African people and the magnitude of violence which they endure.

Students, staff, and faculty who will wear badges that day can pick them up in the Mackay Center foyer during breakfast, coffee-time, or lunch.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE ANNOUNCEMENT

November 11 through 15 has been designated the Stewardship Committee's Annual Fall Program Week. Formerly recognized as a Stewardship "fund drive," the committee's work to support student sponsored organizations will continue under the new title of the Stewardship Committee's Annual Fall Program Week. The program offers the support of time and finances to special causes given approval by the committee. An information table will be set up in the Mackay Center. In addition, chapel programs and community canvassing have been scheduled.

Showing We Care is the theme for the 1985 fall stewardship awareness program. Calling upon the Seminary community to reflect on its role as biblical steward, the committee asks for the commitment of time, talent, and vocation, as well as financial support, to meet the demands of world need. Applications for sponsorship of organizations on local, national, and international levels will be available in the Financial Aid Office.

Jersey "Law Against Discrimination," which makes it unlawful to discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation. THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

OXFAM FAST

Monday, November 18 - Thursday, November 21
In observation of the Oxfam Fast for a World Harvest Week the following agenda has been scheduled:

Hunger Task Force members mark the opening of the Oxfam Fast in Monday's service of worship in Miller Chapel, 12:00 noon.
Tuesday: Oxfam film, "Beginning Changes," Auditorium, 12:40
Wednesday: Film, "The Business of Hunger," Auditorium, 12:40

N.B.: Hunger Task Force will meet as scheduled on Friday, November 22, in conference room D at 12:40 p.m.

On Fasting:
Since the earliest church times, people have fasted for different reasons and for varying amounts of time. Although you may have signed up to fast during the lunch period on November 21, contributing that money to Oxfam America, you may also consider fasting for a longer period of time. Many have chosen to fast for 24 hours, from sundown to sundown. Should you decide to do this, it is important to remember to drink fluids and avoid strenuous exercise. Perhaps you will also want to spend some of this time in prayer and meditation.

Hunger Task Force

CROSS-CULTURAL MISSIONS GROUP

Monday, November 18, Auditorium, 12:40 p.m.
CCMG will have Marianne Johnson, volunteer-in-mission to Egypt, as the guest speaker at this week's regularly scheduled meeting. A volunteer to Egypt for a two-year term, and intern at the VIM office in New York City, Ms. Johnson will share her story and give a slide presentation. She will also discuss the opportunities for both short and long term mission programs in the United States and overseas.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS' FELLOWSHIP

Tuesday, November 19, Main Lounge, 12:40 p.m.
Dr. John Bernbaum, director of Christian College Coalition, Washington, D.C., will discuss the overall theme of this week's regularly scheduled TSF meeting, biblical peace: a reality in our time? A noted writer on the subject of peacemaking, Bernbaum's talk is entitled "Perspectives on Peacemaking: Biblical Options to the Nuclear Age."

BONHOEFFER SPIRITUALITY LECTURE

Tuesday, November 19, Stuart Hall, room 5, 3:30 p.m.
Professor Geffrey Kelly, La Salle College, Philadelphia, will speak on "The Spirituality of Dietrich Bonhoeffer." The author of Liberating Faith: Bonhoeffer's Message for Today, Kelly has written and edited numerous books and articles on Bonhoeffer's theology, and is currently secretary of the International Bonhoeffer Society. This lecture is in the context of ET16 but all members of the Seminary community, and other visitors, are welcome to attend.

FROM THE WOMEN'S CENTER

Tuesday, November 19, Main Lounge, 6:00 p.m.
The Women's Center is sponsoring a brief, 15-minute slide show, produced by the Jubilee Fellowship of Philadelphia, entitled "Sisters of a Common Thread." Through music, poetry, and photographs the stories of Asian, African, and Latin American women emerge. The uniqueness of the politcal and social settings of women, the struggles that unite them, and the ties between women from the third world and North America are explored in this presentation.

THEATRE:

Thursday, November 21, Friday, November 22, Saturday, November 23, 7:30 p.m. A theatrical contribution of two one-act plays will be presented by the Seminary's Speech Department. "Goodbye, Howard," written by Romulus Linney, is a comedy about the problems Howard's three sisters face resulting from the premature announcement of his death. The prospect of cancelling obituary notices to newspapers and recalling telegrams to notables expecting to attend the funeral provides the author with a stage set for unmasking human quirks and foibles.

In the second play, "Potholes," written by Gus Kaikkonen, the audience observes a married couple playing out the practical and often typical courting roles of men and women. A trenchant story presented under a comedic guise.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS' FELLOWSHIP

Friday, November 22, Main Lounge, 12:40 p.m.
TSF recently opened dialogue on the church and its converts. Conversion and the church, the ramifications of 'second birth' within church structure, the pastor and his or her congregation and vice versa, suggest complex issues to be resolved. TSF will continue to discuss this subject at the November 22 meeting. In addition to TSF's regularly scheduled Tuesday meetings, the group will meet weekly on Fridays at 12:40 p.m. in the Main Lounge.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Tuesday, December 10, Main Lounge, 8:00 p.m.
December 10 has been designated Human Rights Day. Continuing its efforts to gain public awareness in the campaign for human rights in the world today, Amnesty International will show the filmed documentary "Your Neighbor's Son, the Making of a Torturer." While the film depicts events in Greece, the story that unfolds bears resemblance to other world communities struggling under dictatorships and controlling civilian governments. A sensitive film, "Your Neighbor's Son...," focuses on how easily human beings become instruments of terror and the systems that permit and accept such cruelty. (AI is a regularly scheduled event.)

KOINONIA — Wednesday, December 11, S.G.A. room, 12:30 p.m.
The Ph.D. fellowship, Koinonia, will hold its first annual Advent Party December 11. Punch and dessert will be provided, however, those attending must wear something purple.

SLIDE PRESENTATION — Thursday, December 12, Alexander Hall Oratory, 7:30 p.m.
Plowshare will sponsor a slide presentation by Beverly Bartlett, M.Div. senior, on her three-week trip to the Soviet Union this past summer.

CHAMBER THEATER — Thursday, December 12, and Friday, December 13, Auditorium, 7:30 p.m. William Brower will present an evening of chamber theater featuring "Prayers from the Ark" by Carmen Bernos de Gasztold. Contemplate for a moment the creatures of the world given the power to speak, to pray. What prayer would be heard from each? "Prayers...," written by de Gasztold in Paris during France's occupation by Germany, expresses the animals' understanding of life based on the circumstances of their existence. Chamber Theater is a relatively new form of art which uses poetry and fiction for stage presentation.

T.S.F. GUEST — Friday, December 13, Main Lounge, 12:40 p.m.
The Theological Students' Fellowship will host Dr. Bruce Waltke at this week's fellowship meeting. A professor of Old Testament at Westminster Seminary, Waltke is a graduate of Dallas Seminary and Harvard Divinity School. He was involved in the New International Version of the Old Testament.
